

I Only Smoke in War Zones

A COLLECTION OF TRUE STORIES FROM THE BATTLEFIELD

(both at home and abroad)

written and performed by JENNIFER RAWLINGS

Award winning performer Jennifer Rawlings is not your typical mother of five. She is a comedienne who has been traveling to war zones for over a decade to entertain the troops (telling them jokes, of course). Jennifer will take you on an unforgettable journey of laughter and tears as she weaves together stories about family and humanity.
